

Job Title: Summer Research Intern (High School)

Work Schedule: 20 hrs/week for eight weeks

Wage/Salary: Stipend of $1500

Start/End Date: July 1 – August 31 (flexible)

Overview: Are you social media savvy? A Twitter guru? A Facebook fanatic? National non-profit, The Get Schooled Foundation, is looking for a dynamic high school intern for a unique opportunity to assist in developing a youth engagement strategy.

Responsibilities: This person will work on a variety of projects, including but not limited to:

- Researching mobile/social game use among teens
- Researching successful social media campaigns involving teens
- Developing a rewards system for Get Schooled’s student leader boards
- Assisting with student focus groups
- Assisting with material development for fall activities

And other opportunities as they arise. This position will work closely with a college intern and will report directly to Director of Strategy, Technology and Operations.

Qualifications: Student must be familiar with social gaming and internet research, and have an interest in how youth use media and technology to engage with the world and learn (including their own story). Must demonstrate responsibility, timeliness and ability to deliver projects on-time. Have good writing and presentation skills, and have a sense of humor.

Job is in downtown Seattle. Please email letter of interest along with resume or background on relevant experience to info@getschooled.com, with INTERN in the subject.
