APPENDIX 1

Participant Terms and Conditions

APPS FOR GOOD TRAINING COURSE TERMS

1.   Introduction

These Terms set out the rights and responsibilities of CDI Apps for Good as provider of an Apps for Good training course (the "Course") and you as a participant in a course.

Please read these Terms carefully before starting a Course. If you do not agree with the Terms, you should not become involved with the Course.

2.   Student Commitment

You agree to work hard, to complete your work to the best of your ability, help others and treat everyone involved with the Course with respect.

You agree to attend all sessions of the Course, be on time and to behave in an appropriate, safe and responsible way.

You agree to follow all school policies regarding use of IT equipment and the internet.

Your teacher may remove you from the Course if you do not keep these commitments.

3.   Complaints

You can make complaints about the course to CDI Apps for Good by emailing contact@appsforgood.org or by calling +44 208 1506908 .

4.   Ownership of work created during the course

We may provide you with training materials including course handouts (paper & e-format), online tutorials, content presentations and link lists, as well as multimedia material (videos/ photos) and example of computer source code and designs (together, the "Materials") The Materials are owned by CDI Apps for Good or licensed from third party providers.

You may use the Materials during the Course and for your own personal use after the Course has come to an end but you may not make further copies unless you have first obtained our permission.

You agree not to use any code, designs or other materials like music which are not your own or are not licensed to you, by this agreement or otherwise, when completing work as part of the Course.

You own the designs and computer code you develop during the Course and retain the right to use these provided you comply with the terms of any licence under which any material incorporated into the design or computer code was licensed to you. By agreeing to these Terms you give Apps for Good permission to use the work as examples in other courses as part of its educational work and to combine the work with other computer codes, information or materials, for non-commercial purposes.
